

BECAUSE OF YOU

Every moment or so
I open my eyes
and after a while I just realize

every moment or so
I'd wash my face with acid and nails deleting all of your trace.

When all is said and done there's no love waste when eyes so blind I missed all the stars when all is said and done there's no love lost when eyes so blind I'm dying.

When I watch TV and see someone kissing with a big hollow
I feel something is missing.

With my hands bare
I dig in my own despair I know it may not be fair searching for someone who cares.

When all is said and done there's no love waste
when all is said and done there's no love lost
when eyes so blind I'm dying.

Handful of medicines breathing thanks to ventolin I should escape from this hole with mister roy philip nohl.

When all is said and done there's no love waste
when eyes so blind I missed all the stars
when all is said and done there's no love lost
when eyes so blind I'm dying.
